About Hridoya Bangladesh

Hridoya Bangladesh (HB) is a non-profit organization whose main purpose is to financially assist underprivileged Bangladeshi students who have excellent aptitudes for learning and the potentials to reach greater horizons. Many students normally fail to fully realize their potentials due to the lack of funds or financial support, and here HB helps making a difference. HB believes that a good education can play an instrumental role in pushing these people out of poverty and help them succeed achieving their goals.

Since its formation in 2007, HB has been actively supporting academically brilliant but financially insolvent students complete their education. Currently, HB has five active projects covering primary, vocational, college, undergraduate level education. In addition, HB is helping autistic students to get better education.
