

Project “Super10: Ten Super Candidates for the BUET Admission Test 2017”

Goal

The goal of this project is to select 10 meritorious HSC candidates from the underprivileged families of Bangladesh, and train them for the Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) admission test 2017.

Description

Students will be selected based on their SSC GPA, HSC test examination result, and academic knowledge. Selected students will be brought to Dhaka for rigorous training. Hridoya Bangladesh, a nonprofit organization, will bear all costs including training, boarding, transportation, and food. So, it will be completely free for the selected students.

To qualify for this project, a student must have the potential to meet all criteria for BUET admission test. Interested students can fill-up information in the page 2 to 4, and email or post to it to Hridoya Bangladesh. For any questions about this project, please contact any of the following people:

About Hridoya Bangladesh

Hridoya Bangladesh (HB) is a nonprofit organization whose main purpose is to financially assist underprivileged Bangladeshi students who have excellent aptitudes for learning and the potentials to reach greater horizons. Many students normally fail to fully realize their potentials due to the lack of financial support, and here HB helps making a difference. HB believes that a good education can play an instrumental role in pushing these students out of poverty and helping them in achieving their dreams. To know more about HB, please visit www.hridoyabangladesh.org.
