Education for Slum Kids

We work with Swapnadhara, a Dhaka-based nonprofit organization working on educating kids living in slums at Mirpur

- Hridoya Bangladesh is a non-profit organization founded in 2007.
- We provide scholarship to brilliant and financially challenged students to continue their education.
- We are supporting over 100 students a year through various activities like working with schools for autistic children and slum kids, supporting S.S.C and H.S.C students, etc.

Education for Autistic Children

We work with Society for the Welfare of the Intellectually Disabled Jhenaidah branch which runs a school for autistic children.

College Education

We financially support bright students with great result on SSC exam to continue their college education.
